Tax Information: The Ohio Chamber of Commerce membership dues are tax deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. Dues paid to the Chamber are not a charitable tax deduction for federal income tax purposes. The Chamber is not a charity, but serves as an advocate organization for Ohio business. In compliance with the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, eighty percent (80%) of your dues is now deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. Twenty percent (20%) is non-deductible as it supports the Ohio Chamber's activities in "lobbying" as defined by federal law.
