

OCCPAC Endorsed Candidates for the May 4, 2010 Primary Elections

The nine candidates listed below have earned the Ohio Chamber of Commerce PAC (OCCPAC) endorsement for their primary race this spring. At a time when the focus of so many in the business community, and across the state in general, is on how Ohio will encourage business growth and job creation, these candidates have clearly distinguished themselves among their opponents.

For the Ohio Senate:

(SD-17) Rep. David Daniels is endorsed for his proven support of Ohio's business community, demonstrated by his 94 percent lifetime voting record with the Ohio Chamber.

(SD-7) Sen. Shannon Jones is endorsed for her 90 percent voting record with the Ohio Chamber, including votes against business mandates that discourage small business growth.

(SD-15) Oyango Snell is endorsed for his experience as a private practice attorney and his knowledge of small business issues.

For the Ohio House:

(HD-10) Rep. Robin Belcher is endorsed for her commitment to work with business owners to solve the problems that face our state and her record as an incumbent in the Ohio House.

(HD-95) Lou Gentile is endorsed based on his record of service on the Ohio Broadband Council and his experience working to aid businesses during his service in the Governor's Office of Appalachia.

(HD-76) Rep. Cliff Hite is endorsed for his 100 percent voting record with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce and his leadership on job creation issues.

(HD-70) Rep. Jarrod Martin is a small business owner and is endorsed for his 100 percent voting record with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

(HD-72) Rep. Ross McGregor is endorsed for his 100 percent voting record with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce and his demonstrated understanding of business issues as a business owner himself.

(HD-46) Rep. Barbara Sears is endorsed for her dedication to working with businesses small and large to address job creation issues and her 86 percent voting record with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.
